Form I Newsletter
Friday 10th November 2023

Our whole school ethos theme next week is:

Anti-Bullying Week
We know how to help if someone is being bullied

Dear Form I Parents,

Our children have had a wonderful week back after half-term, settling in with enthusiasm. In English, they've begun exploring the enchanting story of "Charlie and the Chocolate Factory," crafting character descriptions and honing comprehension skills. In Maths, they have tackled the column method for subtraction and addition, learning to solve problems both with and without a place value exchange. Our exciting topic of chocolate has commenced this week, with the children learning about its origins and processing. In Science, we've continued to learn about nutrition and diet, focusing on the different food groups and how they each contribute to a healthy body. Additionally, the children had an action-packed week with a game of tag rugby and their first swimming class, promoting physical fitness and teamwork.

Class Assembly – Thursday 16th November

We are excited to remind you about our upcoming class assembly, scheduled for next Thursday morning at 8:50 am. The children have been diligently preparing to showcase their talents and creativity. For costumes, we invite the children to come to school wearing anything related to Pudsey Bear or dressed in yellow/white clothes, in keeping with our "Children in Need" theme. Please also note that the children have their regular swimming lesson on that day, so they should wear their swimming costumes underneath and bring their PE kits in a bag to change into afterwards. We look forward to seeing you all on Thursday.

Kind regards,

Ms Connolly, Mrs Hanson and Ms Morley – The Form I team
